Project Angel Tree nets over $3,000

The Mason School of Business community adopted 75 "angels" through the Salvation Army Angel Tree Program. Through contributions of more than $3,000 from faculty and staff, we were able to provide clothing and toys for all of them, plus give $410 in cash to the Salvation Army for other angels who had not been adopted.
