The MBA Experience

Spring Registration
As Spring Registration begins in November, please take a moment to check your Banner account for any holds. These holds will keep both first and second year's from being able to register for Spring semester classes. Please be on the lookout for an email from Michele Mitchell in regards to the procedures for Spring Registration.

PFA Sponsored Costume Party

Stop Hunger Now
When: Saturday, November 5th
Where: Williamsburg Presbyterian Church at 215 Richmond Road
What: Volunteers will team up with the Williamsburg Presbyterian Church to package meals that will be distributed to people around the world in need of food and other resources. The goal for the event is to package 40,000 meals. Activities include: carrying or lifting 50 lb bags of food, funneling food into meal packages, packing meals into moving boxes. The church is particularly in need of volunteers that can help with the heavy lifting (50lbs). If you cannot do heavy lifting, the church has plenty of other opportunities to help! For those with children, day care services will be provided by the church beginning at 1 PM. If you are signing up for more than 1 shift, please add your name to each corresponding column.

Leadership & Business Podcasts:
The days of spending an entire career with one employer are long gone. Today, professionals can expect to change employers and career paths multiple times. Managing your career can be a real challenge, but if done correctly can lead to a great career in which you and your employer are happy. Karen Locke is the Pat and Margaret Walsh professor in Leadership and Ethics at William & Mary's Mason School of Business who works with a range of professionals on, among other things, how to be the CEO of your career.
