COVID-19 Updates

William & Mary has established a call center at (757) 221-7420 to answer questions or report concerns related to the fall semester. Staffed by three William & Mary employees, the call center is open from 8 a.m.-5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

After-hours, community members may ask questions by emailing COVIDResponse@wm.edu or visit https://covidconcerns.wm.edu to report unsafe behavior. William & Mary Police dispatch is available at (757) 221-4596 for urgent matters.
According to a recently released report by McKinsey, jobs will most likely change following the pandemic. The report says the adoption of automation and digitization will accelerate. Demand for contract and remote workers will increase as well. Thanks to COVID-19, the way we look for a new job is changing too. In-person, face-to-face interviews have moved to video. Traditional networking is now mostly online. But those changes don’t mean you should put your job search on hold. Some of the tactics we’ve used in the past continue to be effective while some new approaches are also working. Brett Alpert is Associate Dean for Career Services and the Executive Director of the Graduate Career Management Center at the William & Mary School of Business. He and his team, among other things, offer comprehensive career planning assistance to students while working closely with employers. He joins us on the podcast to talk about the ways job seekers are finding success during the pandemic.
