Announcements

Spring 2021 Schedule Coming Soon!

W&M has delayed Spring 2021 registration until mid-November. The Spring 2021 schedule should be posted in early November for academic planning. We look forward to sharing course details with you then!

Apply to speak at TEDx 2021!

Do you have a story you want to share? Apply to speak at TEDx 2021! Our theme this year is "A New Era" because we believe that our world is poised for positive change and new ideas.

You can also fill out our nomination form if you know of someone - a student, faculty member, or staff member - who would be a great TEDx speaker!

Please apply by October 31:

COVID-19 Updates

William & Mary is conducting a third round of prevalence testing for students. Information has been sent to your W&M email with testing times and instructions. Testing is required for: students who are taking blended courses, students who live near campus, and students who elect to opt-in for testing as well as those living on campus and using the W&M meal plan.

If you have any questions, please contact the Testing Coordination Team at COVIDtest@wm.edu.

Are you interested in serving the Flex MBA Program as an Honor Council Representative?

Each year the Flex MBA program provides two representatives to the Graduate Business Honor Council. This role requires a small amount of on-boarding training and then an hour or two a month to hear any cases that may be brought before the Honor Council. These roles would serve for the Spring 2021 and Summer 2021 semesters. More information on the Graduate Business Honor Council and the process can be found here.

If you are interested in serving as a Flex representative, please complete the Statement of Interest form by 11:59 pm EST on Sunday, November 15, 2020.

Leadership & Business Podcasts Hosted by Associate Dean Ken White

Listen Here

Leadership & Business is an award-winning podcast series. It features the latest and best thinking from today's business leaders from across the world. Each episode features subject matter experts discussing strategies, tactics and information to help you become a more effective leader, communicator and professional.

Did you know that listening to two Leadership & Business podcasts are equivalent to one speaker credit. After listening to the podcasts, you simply e-mail FlexMBA.Program@mason.wm.edu with the names of the podcasts you listened to in order for your speaker credit to be applied.
